

INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES IN CROATIA

Sponsored by the Overseas Private Investment Corporation and the U.S. Department of Commerce in cooperation with the Ministry of Economy of the Republic of Croatia

May 22 and 23, 2001

Hotel Inter-Continental
Kršnjavoga 1, 10000 Zagreb, Croatia

Croatia is emerging as a serious competitor for U.S. investment capital in Central and Eastern Europe. The Government of Croatia has taken a number of concrete steps to advance economic reforms and enhance Croatia's attractiveness for U.S. investors. This two-day conference will allow U.S. companies to hear first-hand from Croatian and U.S. Government officials, International Financial Institutions, and Croatian companies about investment opportunities and possibilities to finance ventures in Croatia in sectors such as telecom and information technology, tourism, infrastructure, and agribusiness. U.S. companies also will have the opportunity to meet one-on-one with potential Croatian partners.

Scheduled speakers will include:

Croatian Government Officials:

Mr. Goranko Fizulic, Minister of Economy, Republic of Croatia
Mr. Hrvoje Vojkovic, President of the Croatian Privatization Fund
Representatives from the Croatia National Bank, Ministry of Finance other leading Croatian officials

U.S. Government Officials:

The Honorable Lawrence Rossin, U.S. Ambassador to the Republic of Croatia
Mr. Robert B. Drumheller, Vice President of Finance, Overseas Private Investment Corporation
Mr. Charles Ludolph, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Europe, U.S. Department of Commerce and senior officials from the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC), Export-Import Bank (EXIM) and U.S. Trade and Development Agency (TDA)
