

INSURANCE CLAIMS EXPERIENCE TO DATE:
OPIC AND ITS PREDECESSOR AGENCY

The Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) provides political risk insurance and project financing for U.S. investors in developing nations and countries in transition from nonmarket to market economies. Since 1971, OPIC has made 291 insurance claim settlements totaling $970.8 million. These settlements have been structured either as cash settlements to investors ($614.7 million) or as OPIC guaranties of host government obligations or other similar arrangements ($356 million). In accordance with those arrangements, OPIC has paid $130 million in addition to the cash settlements described above for a total of $744.7 million in cash payments to date.

OPIC cash recoveries on claims total $447.6 million (without regard to reinsurance reimbursements). Additional recoveries in the form of receivables ($219 million) and recoveries on OPIC guaranteed obligations ($226 million) bring OPIC's total recoveries to $892.6 million, or 92% of total claim settlements. Additional recoveries are anticipated.

Prior to the establishment of OPIC, its programs were administered by the Agency for International Development (USAID). From 1966 to 1970, USAID paid $3.5 million in settlement of eight claims. In addition, USAID denied eight claims, one of which was submitted to arbitration by the investor. Twenty-eight claims have been denied by OPIC under the insurance programs, of which fourteen have been submitted to arbitration by the investors. As of September 30, 2011, there are two pending claims.

1/ For these claims, cash was subsequently paid under the guaranty or indemnity, hence there was no corresponding increase in the overall settlement amount.

2/ Claims for failure to adhere to dispute resolution procedure or honor arbitral award.

3/ Claims for Chase Manhattan and Bank of America in Vietnam were settled not by guaranties but by indemnity agreements for $8,000,000 and $6,000,000, respectively.

4/ Without determining that expropriatory action had occurred, OPIC and the investor agreed on a negotiated sum in settlement of the claim, avoiding a contest over complex and ambiguous legal and factual issues.

5/ Claim for wrongful calling of an on-demand guaranty.

6/ Pending completion of the investor's application for compensation, OPIC agreed to make a $2,000,000 provisional payment, $1,500,000 of which was paid. In 1998, the investor established its claim for compensation up to the contract limit, and OPIC paid an additional $14,204,500.

7/ Standard Fruit filed its expropriation claim with OPIC in 1983, seeking compensation in the amount of $3,000,000 (the policy limit). As means of settling the claim without prejudicing the investor's position in pending litigation with the foreign government, OPIC made an advance payment of $2,000,000, subject to a confidentiality agreement and with the understanding that Standard Fruit could later present arguments that it should be paid the remaining $1,000,000, should the litigation produce additional relevant evidence. The investor and foreign government eventually settled their claims and counterclaims. OPIC denied the investor's request for an additional payment. OPIC and the investor agreed in 1998 on a mutually acceptable public statement about the claim, and the advance payment then became final and disclosable.

8/ The settlement amount includes a provisional payment in the amount of $4,372,492 made on November 27, 2002, which was made final by the terms of the s

9/ These three payments were all in settlement of the claim of Offshore Power Production CV, an affiliate of Enron Corp.
